Trust in 2012

Pope Benedict XVI, in his World Day of Peace message for January 1st, captures both the difficulty of the present moment but also the appropriate Christian response when he writes: "I invite you to look to 2012 with this attitude of confident trust," an attitude that reflects Psalm 130 which tells us that people of faith wait for the Lord "more than those who watch for the morning." It is true, the Holy Father says, that the year now ending has been marked by "a rising sense of frustration at the crisis looming over society, the world of labor and the economy, a crisis whose roots are primarily cultural and anthropological. ... Human hearts however, continue to wait for the dawn..... This expectation is particularly powerful and evident in young people... The young, with their enthusiasm and idealism, can offer new hope to the world."

Young people around the world desire to look to the future with solid hope. "The Church looks to young people with hope and confidence; she encourages them to seek the truth, to defend the common good, to be open to the world around them and willing to see "new things" (Is 42:9; 48:6). The Holy Father encourages parents to give their children their "presence" -- one of the most precious of treasures. May (parents) encourage children by the example of their lives to "put their hope before all else in God, the one source of authentic justice and peace."

The Holy Father tells all of us, especially young people: "do not yield to discouragement in the face of difficulties and do not abandon yourselves to false solutions which often seem the easiest way to overcome problems Do not be afraid to make a commitment, to face hard work and sacrifice, to choose the paths that demand fidelity and constancy, humility and dedication.... Live fully this time in your life so rich and so full of enthusiasm."

"All you men and women... who take to heart the cause of peace: peace is not a blessing already attained, but rather a goal to which each and all of us must aspire. Let us look with greater hope to the future; let us encourage one another on our journey; let us work together to give our world a more humane and fraternal face." Amen.

A peaceful and grace-filled year to all of you.

Fr Frank

Kid's Corner

On January 9 we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord. Baptism is the first of the seven sacraments instituted by Jesus Christ. By Baptism we are cleansed from sin and brought into a new life with God. Even though Jesus did not need Baptism for the same reasons we do, by being Baptized, Christ showed us He was taking our sins upon Himself and that He would die for us. Jesus was showing us how necessary Baptism is for us to get to Heaven. After Baptism, our soul receives a permanent sacramental seal showing that we now belong to Christ.

Matthew 3:17 "and lo, a voice from Heaven, saying, 'This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.' "

This is My Beloved Son

Word of Life

A society is truly human when without reservations it protects and respects the dignity of every person from conception until the moment of his or her natural death. However, should it decide to "get rid" of its members in the greatest need of protection, ... it would be behaving in a profoundly inhuman and also distorted manner with regard to the equality — obvious to every person of good will — of the dignity of all people, in all the stages of life.

~Pope Benedict XVI, Address to the Hon. Reinhard Schweppe, Ambassador of the Federal Republic of Germany to the Holy See, November 7, 2011
